Advent Blessing: One way of really enriching our Advent journey is to keep in mind the three comings of Jesus, and how they relate to one another. Jesus was born into our history - at a fixed point in time in the past. Jesus comes to us now, in a whole variety of ways. Jesus promised that he will come again in glory, at the end of time.

The Incarnation – Jesus Has Come: This is not the coming we await. The first coming of Jesus has already happened. Our preparation to celebrate his birth is the occasion for our deeper reflection. On the first level, it is so important that we really let ourselves experience the power of the Incarnation: God is with us. That God became one of us means that "human" is one of the ways God can be. The deeper we contemplate this mystery, the more we enter into the grace of "God with us." The more we let ourselves be touched by this mystery, the more we enter into the connection between Christmas and Easter. All of this is "for me" - for my salvation - to free me from the power of sin and death.

My Life Now – Jesus Comes To Me: When we open our hearts and our mouths and plead, "Come, O Lord," we are most directly experiencing our desire for the Lord to come to us and touch us with the grace of salvation - that we might live it with greater freedom and peace. Jesus is present whenever we need him to be present: actually, whenever we turn to him - even with empty hands. Jesus is alive and active in us when we read God's Word and let it into our hearts. Jesus promised to be present with us whenever two or three are gathered together in his name. And, we know Jesus comes to us whenever our sacrifices and our sufferings unite us with his own mission. Advent is a special time to experience our longing for the presence of Jesus with us now - in all the places we need him most.

Our Future – Jesus Comes Again, In Glory: One of the most transforming graces of Advent is given to us as our longing deepens. The more grateful we become for how God saved us in Jesus, the more deeply we enter into the mystery of how Jesus is with us now. The closer we come to experiencing joy at how our Lord, Jesus Christ came into our world, faithful to God and faithful to our life journey in the flesh, the closer we come to experiencing the mystery of salvation in our everyday lives. And, as our longing is filled with the utter fullness of God's gift to us, we begin to long with the ultimate freedom: we long to be with him in God. We live more at home in this world because our God made a home in this world. But the whole story draws us to a complete picture of who we are and where we belong. Then our prayer begins to change, in our hearts and on our lips. We still are singing, "Come, Lord, Jesus!" but our song is transformed into the free and complete song of the lover: "Come, and take me with you."

Now we watch for the day,
Hoping that the salvation promised us will be ours
when Christ will come again
In His glory.

Final Newsletter For 2014: As this is our final newsletter for 2014, I would like to start by thanking all the members of the St Paul’s community for your support throughout what has been a long and busy year. It never ceases to amaze me the energy levels of staff and students which bring the educational endeavour of our College to life. I can assure you that each and every staff member has worked tirelessly to ensure your sons and daughters have received the best opportunity to Let Their Light Shine in 2014.

Farewell and Good Luck to Departing Staff: As the year draws to a close we must farewell some staff who will leave us for temporary or permanent appointments elsewhere or whose contracts have been completed:

- Mr Angus Crowley who will take 12 months with his wife to further her nursing training around various locations in Australia. We wish them all the best.
- Mr Jason Feehan who has worked as an IT Support trainee for the last 18 months. Jason will return to family in WA. We wish him well.
- Mr Paul Smith who after a long period of sick leave has resigned to focus on his health. We send our prayers to him for his continued improvement.
- Mrs Amy Tovey who will spend twelve months caring for her new child. She will re-join the College in 2016 on a part-time basis.
- Mr Michael Walsh whose transfer to St Joseph’s Regional has now been finalised.

Congratulations: to Abigael Baker, Clair Brennan, Tess Harwood and Rilee O’Loughlin who were awarded first prize in the University of Wollongong State Maths Via Digital Media Competition for Year 9. A big thank you to Mr John Marks, who supported the girls in their efforts. This is an outstanding result as they were up against some solid competition from Sydney schools.

Grooming And Appearance For 2015: As it is holiday time, many students and families decide that it is a good opportunity to experiment with appearances including new piercings, new hair styles and colours. Whilst this is always an exciting time for our young people, I would remind parents of our rules around grooming. If you are unsure, please check the College web-site or your child’s diary. It would be a shame to start the New-Year off on the wrong note. A note has been placed in reports for your perusal.

Return Dates: A reminder to you that students return in 2015 on the following dates:

- Year 7 and 12 – Thursday, 29 January
- Year 8 to 11 – Friday, 30 January

God Bless

Mr Kevin Lewis – Principal

RETURNING TEXTBOOKS
As we are at the end of the year, students in Years 7 to 10 should have already returned their textbooks to the Library.

Please note…any overdue loans originating this year will mean that textbooks will not be issued to those students next year. This policy will only be altered on the rarest of occasions, so start searching desks, classroom cupboards, lockers and, of course, at home.

Year 11 retain any books issued this term (along with Religion and Maths texts) as they will be needed for their HSC.

ANY OVERDUE TEXTS WILL HAVE TO BE REPLACED OR PAID FOR BEFORE FURTHER ONES ARE ISSUED.

Finally, thank you to all parents who support us in our endeavours to allow all students to let their light shine. This support makes the vocation of teaching so much more rewarding.

I hope all families have a happy and Holy Christmas. I look forward to see you all in the New Year.

Mr Guy Campbell – Assistant Principal

Giving Mass: The ‘Giving Mass’ on Friday, 28 November, was a fitting way to mark the beginning of our preparations for Christmas and the drawing to a close of the school year. Fr Gooley, as usual, engaged the students, and challenged them to think about those things that are most important to them. He also invited all students and their families to attend Mass over the festive season to celebrate the true meaning of Christmas.

I would like to acknowledge Fr Paul, his parish staff and the All Saints parishioners who have supported the school so strongly again this year. Their energy and enthusiasm overflows and makes the College the warm and caring place that so many visitors comment on.

I would like to publicly thank Mrs Beth McMillan, who has worked tirelessly to organise the school choir and musicians, in between teaching, for all of our Masses this year. To the students of the choir, and in particular, the senior Men’s Choir, thanks for the way that you added a special dimension to our school liturgies.

I would like to thank Mr Brad Clarke and Mr Angus Crowley who have stepped up to play music and sing at a number of liturgies this year. Thank you for going beyond your call of duty.

I would like to thank Miss Lucy Barber in her role as Ministry trainee this year. She has done a great job and added another dimension to evangelisation. To our school leaders, great ministry leaders and SRC representatives, thank you for volunteering to do readings and taking on other roles at our Masses.

To the students of the school, congratulations on the way that you have conducted yourselves and approached our school Masses and liturgies. Thank you to the parents who supported our Sunday Masses, through your attendance and providing a plate for morning tea when needed. Thank you to Mrs Belinda Mainey and Sonya Hume, who have catered for various functions this year. The time and effort that you have put in has been much appreciated.

Christmas Hampers: The St Paul’s tradition of collecting non-perishable foods and gifts for the St Vincent de Paul Christmas Appeal culminated with the presentation of 26 hampers to Beatrice Gray and Yvonne Millard at our Giving Mass. On behalf of St Vincent de Paul, they warmly thanked the students and their families for making such a wonderful contribution. They explained to us that there are a growing number of children and families in our own community who will be doing it tough at Christmas time.

The Christmas Season: I’d like to wish everyone a happy and peaceful Christmas. I’d also remind the students of Fr Gooley’s challenge, to not just get lost in the commercial side, but to keep in mind the true meaning of Christmas.

Mr Conrad Tamblyn – Leader of Evangelisation

TEXTILES

Well, the semester started in a flurry of work, as Year 12 put the finishing touches on their Major Textiles Projects. These were sent to Sydney for external marking in mid-August. It was then heads down to revise for the HSC exam.
Year 11 worked on refining their folio skills and made children’s garments. They have now started preparing for their HSC projects. We had a week in Melbourne and Sydney, which you read about in a previous newsletter. This term they have started the Design component of their theory work. We have studied the historical development of swimwear and dyeing and printing techniques. I have recently purchased a collection of old swimwear and we have marvelled at how far swimwear has changed in the last 100 years. The old neck-to-knee woollen swimming costumes gave us a laugh, but we were quite impressed with the gorgeous ruched cotton swimmers of the 1950s.

Year 10 worked on a range of projects in Semester Two, with many students opting to make summer dresses. We studied a fashion unit and compared haute couture designs with ready-to-wear chain store fashions. Unfortunately, we didn’t have any haute couture samples to observe! However, we watched some beautiful video clips outlining the construction of these exquisite designs. Year 10 also became involved with the “yarn bombing” project, in conjunction with Kempsey TAFE, for the Riverside Festival. They made pom-poms and wrapped wire frames with yarn to make wallaroos. After the festival, they were on display at the Adelaide Swift Art Prize in South West Rocks.

Year 7 continued with their Prayer Flag Project. Each term I get a new group of Year 7 students. Marbling was a popular option this term and a few creative students experimented with gelli plate printing.

I have also been involved with extra activities this semester. The trip to Melbourne was a great chance for me to further develop my textile knowledge and skills. I attended the Diocesan TAS Conference at Murwillumbah. We experimented with a new product called Lumi Inkodye. This product is used to print fabric with the sun exposing the special ink. Fine details can be easily achieved and the process is quite simple. I am hoping to introduce this technique to Year 7 next year. Last week I travelled to Newcastle for the day to participate in a textile factory tour organised by Hunter TEA. We visited Waxcon at Rutherford. This company makes a range of specialised fabrics such as oilskin for Drizabone jackets. They also weave, dye and rotary screen print the camouflage fabric for the defence force and we were able to observe all these machines in action. After lunch we travelled to Sisley at Wallsend. They specialise in flame retardant protective clothing for helicopter pilots, miners and workers on the oil rigs. They have a Pathfinder computerised cutting machine and a range of machines to complete specific sewing tasks. It was a worthwhile day and was also a great opportunity to network with other textile teachers.

We have 18 students in Year 9 Textiles next year and a composite Year 11/12 class, so we should have a wonderful, creative year. I have already booked Elizabeth Armstrong to conduct a felting workshop for all elective students. She makes vibrant, colourful felted pieces and is quite well known amongst the felting community. http://elizabeth-armstrong.blogspot.com.au/?_sm_au_=iVVV5ZJ2SrsrH6SQ

I hope you all enjoy a happy and restful Christmas, celebrating with family and friends. I look forward to working with your children in 2015. More photos on Page 8.

LIBRARY NEWS

Thanks to everyone who has managed to return their overdue text and Library books. Some are still out there, however, so don’t be surprised if you receive reminders along with your reports next week. Students still have a slight window of opportunity to grab your Christmas reading/viewing material from the Library. You can borrow up to FIVE items.

Or...go online and download one of our newly acquired eBooks:

- Go to the Library Homepage via the College Moodle Page
- Click on the link “Visit our Overdrive site to see what's on offer.”
- Once into our Digital Library, type in your User Name where it asks for “Library Card Number” and your Password where it asks for “PIN”
- Navigate the site in order to familiarise yourself with it. A grey book icon means that title is already on loan. A black book icon means you can borrow it. A headphone icon means it’s an audio book
- If using a device rather than a tablet, be sure to download the Overdrive app.
- Finally, do not access the book via the red “EPUB” button. Do so via the blue “Read in your browser” button.
• 1 loan per borrower, which lasts for 3 weeks before disappearing from your device. You can return it earlier, which will then allow you to borrow another book.

Thought for the Fortnight: “God bless Us, Every One!” Tiny Tim from Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol.

Happy Reading!

HOSPITALITY REPORT

Auction Dinner Party – Thank You Matt and Tracy Baker

Last Friday night was the date chosen to host the Dinner Party for Matt and Tracy Baker and their invited guests who so generously bid $3000 at the P & F Formal Dinner held earlier on this year.

Matt and Tracey invited nineteen guests to join them in the Market place last Friday night for a three course meal and canapes prepared and served by Year 11 Hospitality students. It was fitting to have many of the students’ parents in attendance, who came as guests of Matt and Tracey. The guest list was – Matt and Tracy Baker, Abigail Baker, Diane and Michael Whalen, Evelyn and Peter Henry, Sharron and Leslie Millar, Bernadette and Kevin Sinclair, Tracey Clarke, Michelle and Steve Ryan, Amanda and Sam Preston and Rebecca and Craig Lewthwaite. Student helpers were Daniel Baker, Mitch Clarke, Zoe Clarke, Emily Millar, Laura Raison, Tahni-Lee Griffiths, Edwina Elsley and Lexie Ferris.

The menu included crab, bacon and mushroom stuffed prawns with a plum sauce, eye fillet steak baked with mushroom garlic sauce, seasonal vegetables and potato duchess and dessert was a refreshing coconut and vanilla panna cotta with pineapple salsa and mint sugar.

On behalf of the St Paul’s College Community (P & F Committee) I would like to acknowledge and commend Matt and Tracy for their generous financial support of the College. It was a pleasure to liaise and look after such generous community members not only here at the College but also the Macleay Valley with Matt being heavily involved in both the Saints Soccer Club and Nulla Cricket Club.

Congratulations, Matt and Tracy, for all you do for the communities of both St Paul’s and the Macleay Valley. Photos on Page 9.

MUSIC REPORT

The College Concert Band has been busy in the last few weeks rehearsing and performing. The students were invited to attend the Kempsey Cup where they accompanied Jemma Edwards, singing the National Anthem prior to the Cup itself.

The band also attended a concert and band workshop at Melville High School on 24 November, which was a fun and instructional day.

In other music news, the College Men’s Choir have been invited to Perform at the Parish Sesquicentenary Carols night at St Joseph’s Primary on Saturday, 13 December, where they will be entertaining the audience with carols they have been practising with Mr Crowley.

Mrs Beth McMillan – Leader of Creative Art and Languages

SPORT NEWS

I’d like to use this opportunity to announce that I’ll be stepping down from the Sport Co-ordinator role next year.

I have thoroughly enjoyed this role over the last two years and I have been lucky enough to share in some great successes. The best part of this job has been getting to share in the joy of sport with so many students on an almost weekly basis. The thing I have been most impressed with is that each and every time a St Paul’s student runs out onto the sporting field they compete with determination, camaraderie, and enjoyment and always with a deep sense of fairness. The fact that we, as a relatively small school, regularly experience sporting success, is testament to not only the talent of our students, but also the dedication of the teachers who take on our sporting teams.
I’d like to thank each of the students, teachers and parents I’ve been in contact with over the last few thoroughly enjoyable years. I look forward to continuing my involvement in College sport as a coach and manager next year, under the guidance of the new College Sport Co-ordinator, Miss Di Lawrence. I know she will do a fantastic job.

Good luck to our boys and girls T20 teams who will compete in the final of the Cricket NSW High Schools T20 Challenge next week.
