CREATIVE ARTS/ LOTE ASSESSMENT NOTIFICATION

YEAR: 11 Drama

TASK NAME: Formal essay response based on the play The Removalist by David Williamson

TASK NO. 4

DATE RECEIVED: 18/11/2014

DUE: 01/12/2014

WEIGHTING: 20%

OUTCOMES TO BE ASSESSED: H1.3, H3.1, H3.2, H3.3

Australian Drama and Theatre  Studies in Drama and Theatre  Group Performance  Individual Project

TASK: Essay on The Removalist to be written in class time

Your essay needs to include aspects of the following:
- Language: dialogue and the use of dramatic forms and performance styles to create tension to engage the audience i.e contrast and dialogue
- Pops/costume – the focus on status and position in society and physical movement – the tension between the character
- Characterisation – stereotypes, abuse of power, Australian masculine aggression, cultural and social issues and a deeply aggressive society, obsession with female sexuality and sexism, domestic violence and abuse of authority

HOW TO COMPLETE THIS TASK:

In your answer to this task, you will be assessed on how well you:
- Construct a response which conforms to the features of the essay text type.
- Your essay should include an introduction, body and conclusion.
- Elements which may be dealt with include: Reference to dramatic form and performance styles
- Techniques and the conventions of Australian Theatre and in particular to your study and experience of the set text for study.

WHERE TO SUBMIT THIS TASK: The essay is to be completed in class time and to be handed in at end of lesson.

This assessment is to be submitted at 9:10am on the specified due date in front of ART 1, unless instructed to be submitted electronically.

It is to be submitted to Mr Igerl. In the case of their absence it is to be submitted to the LOL CAPA/LOTE Co-ordinator Beth McMillan, Curriculum Co-ordinator Leon Robinson, Deputy Principal, or Principal, respectively in order.